PART ONE: ACCESS TO INFORMATION FROM A WRITTEN TEXT (60 points)

Read the article below, and then answer the questions.

TO BUY OR NOT TO BUY?

- 1 Have you ever heard of Black Friday? It is a special day for shoppers in the United States. On this day, stores open early-some even at 3 a.m. Everything is on sale and you can find great bargains. However, this day is not without problems. Customers often spend money needlessly, buying items just because they are on sale. Moreover, they often behave aggressively when they want to grab something before anyone else.
- 7 Black Friday is on the fourth Friday in November. It is the day on which gift shopping for the holiday's of Hanukah and Christmas officially begins. It was named "Black Friday" because store owners were sure to get " in the black" on this day. In other words, they were sure to make a profit. On the eve of Black Friday, thousands of people stand in line, waiting for the stores to open. And when the doors finally open, they often push each other to get in. This can be very dangerous because people can fall and get seriously injured.
- 15 But now, a growing number of people are fighting back. They are protesting against the violence and the wasteful spending habits of the American people. They are encouraging people not to buy anything on black Friday. In fact, they have renamed the day "Buy Nothing Day".
- 19 "Buy Nothing Day" has attracted tens of thousands of people in the U.S. Andrea Hamilton, a mother of four children, from Chicago, is one of these people. "We must stop this craziness," she says. "It is frightening to see the crowds on Black Friday. They will do anything to get a good deal.
- 23 "Buy Nothing Day" is only one day a year, but let's hope it makes people stop and think about their shopping behavior.
